Constitution subject to the Law

1.4 This Constitution is subject to the Law and where there is any inconsistency between a clause of this Constitution and the Law, the Law prevails to the extent of the inconsistency.

2 Capital

Issue and allotment of Shares under the control of Directors

2.1 The issue and allotment of Shares (including any new Shares created on an increase of capital) will be under the control of the Directors. The Directors:

- (a) may allot or otherwise dispose of Shares to any person, on terms and conditions, including the issue price and at any times that the Directors think fit;

- (b) have full power to give any person a call or option over any Shares and (subject to the Law) during any time and for any consideration that the Directors think fit;
- (c) may issue Shares with any preferential, deferred or special rights, privileges or conditions or with any restrictions (whether about dividends, voting, return of Share capital or otherwise) that the Directors determine; and
- (d) will ensure that no preference Shares are allotted unless the rights and restrictions attaching to the Shares are set out in this Constitution or have otherwise been approved by Special Resolution.

Company may issue preference Shares

2.2 Subject to clause 2.1 the Company may issue preference Shares in accordance with the procedure specified in the Law which are, or at the option of the Company are, liable to be redeemed. The terms on which and the manner in which the preference Shares are to be redeemed will, if permitted by law, be specified in the conditions of issue of the preference Shares.

Joint holders

- 2.3 Where 2 or more persons are registered as the holders of any Share, they are deemed to hold the Share as joint tenants with benefits of survivorship, but:
- (a) the Company is not bound to register more than 3 persons (unless they are trustees, executors or administrators of a deceased holder) as the holders of any Share;
 - (b) the joint holders are jointly and severally liable for all payments (including calls and instalments) which may be made for the Share;
 - (c) on the death of any joint holder, the survivor or survivors are the only person or persons recognised by the Company as having any title to the Share, but the Directors may require evidence of death;
 - (d) any joint holder may give a valid receipt for any dividend, bonus or return of capital payable to the joint holders; and
 - (e) delivery of a certificate for a Share to any joint holder will be sufficient delivery to all the joint holders.

Recognition of other interests in Shares

2.4 Subject to the Law, the Company is entitled to treat the registered holder of any Shares as the absolute owner of those Shares and is not bound to recognise any equitable or other claim to or interest in the Shares on the part of any person.

3 Certificates

Issue of certificates

- 3.1 The certificate of title to Shares must:
- (a) be signed by either 2 Directors, a Director and Secretary, or
 - (b) where the Company only has 1 Director who is also the only Secretary, the Director may sign the certificate of title to Shares if the Director states next to his or her signature that he or she is witnessing the Seal in the capacity of sole Director and sole Secretary of the Company; and

- (c) include all information required by the Law.

Entitlement of Member to certificate

- 3.2 Subject to clause 3.3, every Member will be entitled free of charge to 1 certificate for the Shares registered in their name or to several certificates each for a reasonable proportion of those Shares.
- 3.3 Where Shares are registered in the names of 2 or more persons, only 1 certificate is required to be issued for those Shares.

Application to register transfer of Shares

- 3.4 Where an application to register the transfer of any Shares or to register any person as a Member for any Shares which may have been transmitted to that person by operation of law is made, the certificate for those Shares must be given to the Company for cancellation and a new certificate specifying the Shares transferred or transmitted must be given to the transferee or transferee. If registration is required for only some of the Shares specified on the certificate given to the Company, a new certificate specifying the Shares remaining untransferred or untransmitted must be given to the transferor.

Replacement of worn out or defaced certificates

- 3.5 If any certificate is worn out or defaced, the Directors may, if it is given to the Company, cancel it and issue a new or duplicate certificate.

Replacement of lost or destroyed certificates

- 3.6 If any certificate is lost or destroyed, the Directors may order that a new certificate be issued after being given:
- (a) evidence of loss or destruction as required by the Law;
 - (b) an undertaking that the certificate will be returned (if found) as required by the Law; and
 - (c) if the Directors consider it necessary, a bond or indemnity as the Directors may require under the Law.

4 Lien on Shares

Lien for calls or money payable for Shares

- 4.1 The Company has a first lien on every Share for all money (whether presently payable or not) called, or payable at fixed times, for that Share. The Company also has a first lien on all Shares for all money presently payable by a holder or their estate to the Company or for all money payable by the Company (or for which the Company becomes liable to pay) to any governmental or other competent authority for the Shares. The Directors may at any time declare any Share to be wholly or in part exempt from the provisions of this clause. The Company's lien (if any) on a Share will extend to all dividends payable on the Share.

Sale under lien

- 4.2 The Company may sell any Shares on which the Company has a lien in any manner the Directors think fit but no sale will be made:
- (a) unless a sum relating to the lien is presently payable; and
 - (b) until 14 days after a notice in writing, stating and demanding payment of the amount which is presently payable, has been given to the registered holder of the Shares or the person entitled to the Shares because of the death or bankruptcy of the registered holder.
- 4.3 The proceeds of the sale will be received by the Company and applied in payment of that part of the amount for which the lien exists that is presently payable, and the residue, if any, must (subject to a similar lien for sums not presently payable as existed on the Shares before the sale) be paid to the person entitled to the Shares at the date of the sale.

Transfer on sale under lien

- 4.4 For the purpose of effecting a sale under the previous clause, the Directors may authorise a person to transfer the Shares sold to the purchaser of those Shares. The purchaser will be registered as the holder of the Shares in that transfer, and will not be bound to see to the application of the purchase money, nor will title to the Shares be affected by any irregularity or invalidity in connection with the sale.

5 Calls

Directors may make calls

- 5.1 The Directors may make calls as they think fit on the Members for all moneys unpaid on the Shares held by the Members that are not moneys made payable at fixed times by the conditions of allotment. Each Member must pay the amount of every call made at the times and places appointed by the Directors. A call may be made payable by instalments and will be deemed to have been made when the resolution of the Directors authorising that call was passed. The Directors may revoke or postpone a call.

Notice of calls

- 5.2 At least 14 days' written notice of a call must be given specifying the time and place for payment. The non-receipt of any notice by, or the accidental omission to give notice of any call to, any Member will not invalidate the call.

Payment of calls

- 5.3 If the conditions of allotment of any Share require the whole or part of the amount or issue price for that Share to be paid by instalments, every instalment must be paid to the Company when due by the Member or the Member's legal personal representative.

Difference in terms of issue as to calls

- 5.4 The Directors may issue Shares which differentiate between the holders as to the amount of calls to be paid and the time for payment of those calls.

Interest on sums not paid

- 5.5 If a sum called for a Share is not paid by the date for payment, the person from whom the sum is due must pay interest on the sum from the date for payment to the time of actual payment at the rates determined by the Directors. The Directors may waive payment of interest, either in whole or in part.

Fixed payment deemed calls

- 5.6 Any sum which, by the terms of issue of a Share, becomes payable on allotment or at any fixed date, will for the purposes of this Constitution be deemed to be a call duly made and payable on the date on which the sum is payable. In case of non-payment, all the relevant provisions of this Constitution as to payment of interest and expenses, forfeiture or otherwise will apply as if the sum had become payable by virtue of a call duly made and notified.

Prepayment of calls

- 5.7 The Directors may, if they think fit, receive from any Member, all or any part of the amount unpaid upon the Shares held by that Member beyond the sums actually called up. The Directors may authorise payment by the Company of interest on the whole or any part of the amount received until the amount becomes due or is repaid at the rate agreed between the Member paying the sum in advance and the Directors. As an alternative to interest, the Directors may agree with the Member that the Member be treated as paid up to the amount including the amount paid or satisfied in advance. The Directors may at any time authorise repayment of the whole or any part of the amount paid in advance by giving 1 Month's notice of the date for repayment to the Member.

Proof of calls

- 5.8 In any proceeding for the recovery of money due for any call, it is sufficient to prove that:
- (a) the name of the Member sued is entered in the Members' Register as the holder or one of the holders of the Shares for which the call was made;
 - (b) the resolution making the call was duly recorded in the minute book; and
 - (c) the call was payable at a fixed time or notice of the call was given to the Member sued under this Constitution; and it is not necessary to prove the appointment of the Directors who made the call or any other matter but the proof of the matters listed in this clause will be conclusive evidence of the debt.

6 Forfeiture of Shares

Forfeiture notice

- 6.1 If a Member fails to pay any call or instalment of a call on the due date for payment, the Directors may, at any time while any part of the call or instalment remains unpaid, serve a Forfeiture Notice on the Member requiring payment of any amount of the call or instalment that is unpaid, together with any interest which may have accrued and all expenses that may have been incurred by the Company because of that non-payment.

Contents of forfeiture notice

- 6.2 The Forfeiture Notice must name a day at least 14 days after the date of service of the Forfeiture Notice by which the payment required by the Forfeiture Notice must be made. The notice must state that if payment is not made within that time the relevant Shares will be liable to be forfeited.

Forfeiture for failure to comply with notice

- 6.3 If a Member does not comply with the requirements of any notice, any Share about which the Forfeiture Notice has been given may, before the payment required by the Forfeiture Notice has been made, be forfeited by a resolution of the Directors. That forfeiture will include all dividends declared for the forfeited Shares and not paid before the forfeiture. The non-receipt of any Forfeiture Notice by, or the accidental omission to give Forfeiture Notice of any forfeiture to any Member will not invalidate the forfeiture.

Sale of forfeited Shares

- 6.4 A forfeited Share may be sold or otherwise disposed of on the terms and in the manner the Directors think fit, and, at any time before sale or disposal, the forfeiture may be cancelled on any terms the Directors think fit.

Effect of forfeiture

- 6.5 A person whose Shares have been forfeited ceases to be a Member for the forfeited Shares, but remains liable to pay to the Company all money which, at the date of forfeiture, was payable by him or her to the Company for the Shares together with interest on this amount from the date of forfeiture until payment at the rate determined by the Directors. The Directors are under no obligation to enforce the payment.

Evidence of forfeiture

- 6.6 A statutory declaration in writing that the declarant is a Director or Secretary of the Company and that a Share in the Company has been duly forfeited on a date stated in the declaration is conclusive evidence of the facts stated against all persons claiming to be entitled to the Share.

Proceeds of sale and transfer of forfeited Shares

- 6.7 The Company may receive the consideration, if any, given for a forfeited Share on any sale or disposal of the Share and the Directors may authorise any person to execute a transfer of the Share in favour of the person to whom the Share is sold or disposed of. The transferee will then be registered as the holder of the Share, and is not bound to see to the application of the purchase money (if any) nor will the person's title to the Share be affected by any irregularity or invalidity in the proceedings in connection with the forfeiture, sale or disposal of the Share.

Forfeiture applies to non-payment of fixed payment

- 6.8 The provisions of this Constitution about forfeiture apply to the non-payment of any sum which, by the terms of issue of a Share, becomes payable at a fixed time as if the sum had been payable because of a call duly made and notified.

Surrender of Shares

- 6.9 The Directors may accept the surrender of any paid up Shares as a compromise of any question whether the holder is properly registered for those Shares. Any Share surrendered in this manner may be disposed of in the same manner as a forfeited Share.

7 Transfer of Shares

Transfer document

- 7.1 Subject to this Constitution, a Member may transfer all or any Shares by delivering a transfer document duly stamped (if necessary) to the Company. The transfer document must be in writing in the usual or common form or in such other form as the Directors may from time to time prescribe or, in particular circumstances, agree to accept.

Execution of instrument of transfer and completion of transfer

- 7.2 The instrument of transfer of any Share must be signed by or on behalf of the transferor and the transferor remains the holder of the Share until the name of the transferee is entered in the Members' Register as the holder of the Share.

Directors may refuse to register transfer

- 7.3 The Directors may refuse to register any transfer of Shares and need not provide any reason for their refusal. Where the Directors refuse to register a transfer, they must send notice of the refusal to the transferee within 2 Months from the date on which the transfer was lodged with the Company. Failure to give notice will not invalidate the decision of the Directors.

Prohibited transfers

- 7.4 The Directors must not register a transfer to a person who is known to them to be less than 18 years old or a person of unsound mind but the Directors are not bound to enquire as to the age or soundness of mind of any transferee.

Registration procedure

- 7.5 Every instrument of transfer must be left at the Office with the certificate for the Shares to be transferred and any other evidence the Directors may require to prove the title of the transferor or their right to transfer the Shares. All instruments of transfer that are registered must be retained by the Company but any instrument of transfer which the Directors refuse to register will (except in the case of fraud or suspected fraud) be returned on demand to the person who deposited that instrument.

Suspension of registration of transfers

- 7.6 The registration of transfers may be suspended by the Directors at any time and for any period not exceeding 30 days in total in any calendar year.

8 Transmission of Shares

Death of a Member

- 8.1 If a Member dies:
- (a) where the Member was a joint holder of any Shares, the surviving joint holder (or holders) will be the only person (or persons) recognised by the Company as having any title to or interest in those Shares; or
 - (b) the legal personal representatives of the Member (not being 1 of 2 or more joint holders) will be the only persons recognised by the Company as having any title to or interest in the Shares registered in the Member's name.

Transmission on merger

8.2 The merger of any 2 or more corporations under the laws of any jurisdiction will be a transmission of rights.

Transmission on death or bankruptcy and election

8.3 A person who becomes entitled to a Share because of the mental incapacity, death or bankruptcy of a Member or otherwise by operation of law may, on producing evidence of the person's entitlement which the Directors may require, elect either to be registered as a holder of the Share or may nominate some other person to be registered as the transferee of that Share.

8.4 If the person elects to be registered, the person must give the Company a written notice signed by the person stating the election. If the person elects to have another person registered, the person must sign a transfer of the Share in favour of that person. All the limitations, restrictions and provisions of this Constitution relating to the right to transfer, the form of transfer and the registration of transfers of Shares are applicable to that notice or transfer.

9 Alteration of capital

Company's power to alter capital

9.1 The Company may:

- (a) consolidate and divide all or any of its Shares into Shares of a larger amount;
- (b) subdivide its Shares or any of them into Shares of a smaller amount but so that in the subdivision the proportion between the amount paid and the amount (if any) unpaid on each reduced Share will be the same as it was for the Share from which the reduced Share is derived; and
- (c) cancel Shares which have been forfeited.

10 Modification of rights

Modification of rights of class of Shares

10.1 If the share capital of the Company, whether by reason of the issue of preference Shares or otherwise, is divided into different classes of Shares, all or any of the rights and privileges attaching to any class (unless otherwise provided by the terms of issue of the Shares of that class) may be varied or abolished in any way with the consent in writing of the Members entitled to vote for at least 75% of the issued Shares of the class or with the sanction of a resolution passed by the Members entitled to vote for at least 75% of the issued Shares of the class. At any meeting to approve such a resolution the provisions contained in this Constitution about notice of meetings, the appointment of a chairman and of proxies, attorneys and representatives, the depositing and form and validity of proxies and the conduct of general meetings will apply to the meeting.

No consent or sanction required for redemption

10.2 No consent or sanction referred to in the previous clause is required for the redemption of any Shares or any other alteration of rights attaching to any Shares where that redemption or alteration complies with the terms of issue of those Shares.

Variation by issue of further Shares ranking equally

- 10.3 The rights conferred on the holders of the Shares of any class issued with preferred or other rights will, unless otherwise expressly provided by the terms of issue of the Shares of that class, be deemed to be varied by the creation or issue of further Shares ranking equally for those preferred or other rights.

Changes to this Constitution

- 10.4 Each Member agrees to be bound by any modification of this Constitution made after the date on which they become a Member so far as the modification:
- (a) requires the Member to take up additional shares;
 - (b) increases the Member's liability to contribute to the share capital of, or otherwise pay money to, the Company; or
 - (c) imposes or increases restrictions on the right to transfer the shares already held by the Member, whether the modification is made in connection with the Company's change from a public company to a proprietary company under Part 2B.7 of the law or to insert proportional takeover approval provisions into the Company's constitution.

11 General meetings

- 11.1 Subject to section 249R of the Law general meetings of the Company may be held within or outside Australia and may be convened at any time.

Calling of general meetings

- 11.2 In relation to the convening of general meetings:
- (a) any Director may call general meetings to be held at any place the Director thinks fit; and
 - (b) the Directors must call, and arrange to hold, a general meeting, within 21 days after being requested to do so by Members with at least 5% of the votes that may be cast at the general meeting or at least 100 Members who are entitled to vote at the general meeting.

Notice of general meetings

- 11.3 Except as permitted by the Law, at least 21 days' notice of every general meeting or meeting of any class of Members must be given in the manner provided by this Constitution to the Members and the persons entitled under this Constitution to receive notices.

Contents of notice of general meetings

- 11.4 Every notice convening a general meeting must set out the place, date and time for the meeting (and if the meeting is to be held in 2 or more places, the technology that will be used to facilitate this) and otherwise comply with the requirements of section 249L of the Law.

12 Proceedings at general meeting

Quorum for general meeting

- 12.1 No business will be transacted at any general meeting unless a quorum is present at the beginning of the business and during the whole of the meeting. A quorum is constituted by:
- (a) where the Company has a single Member, that Member; and
 - (b) where the Company has 2 or more Members, 2 Members present in person or by attorney or proxy.

Representative of body corporate

- 12.2 Where:
- (a) a person present at a general meeting is authorised to act as the representative of a body corporate at the general meeting under an authority given by the body corporate under section 250D of the Law; and
 - (b) the person is not otherwise entitled to be present at the general meeting;
- the body corporate will, for the purposes of this Constitution, be deemed to be present in person at the general meeting.

No quorum

- 12.3 If a quorum is not present within 20 minutes after the time appointed for the meeting, any meeting convened on a requisition of Members will be dissolved but any other meeting will be adjourned to the same day in the next week at the same time and place or to such other day, time and place that the Directors may appoint by notice to the Members. If at the adjourned meeting a quorum is not present, the meeting will be dissolved.

Chairman of general meeting

- 12.4 The chairman of the Directors, or, in the chairman's absence, the deputy chairman (if any), is entitled to take the chair at every general meeting. If there is no chairman or if at any meeting the chairman is not present within 15 minutes after the time appointed for holding the meeting or if the chairman is unwilling to act, the Directors present may choose a chairman. If the Directors do not choose a chairman, the Members present must choose 1 of the Directors to be chairman and if no Director is present or willing to take the chair, the Members must choose someone to be chairman.

Powers of chairman

- 12.5 At any general meeting, a declaration by the chairman that a resolution has been carried or carried by a particular majority or not carried and a recording of that declaration in the minute book will be conclusive evidence of the fact without proof of the number or proportion of votes recorded in favour of or against that resolution.

Adjournment of general meeting

- 12.6 The chairman of a general meeting may, with the consent of the meeting, adjourn the meeting from time to time and from place to place, but only business left unfinished at the original meeting may be transacted at the adjournment.

Notice of adjourned meeting

- 12.7 If any general meeting is adjourned for more than 1 month, a notice of the adjournment must be given to Members of the Company in the same manner as notice was or ought to have been given of the original meeting. In the case of all other adjournments, it is not necessary to give notice of an adjournment or of the business to be transacted at an adjourned meeting.

13 Voting

Resolution determined by majority

- 13.1 At a general meeting:
- (a) all questions submitted to the meeting will be decided by a simple majority of votes except where a greater majority is required by this Constitution or the Law;
 - (b) if necessary the chairman will have a casting vote in addition to the vote or votes to which the chairman may be entitled as a Member; and
 - (c) in the first instance, voting will be on a show of hands. A poll may be demanded on any question before the close of the meeting by the chairman, any Member, or their proxy, attorney or representative. The chairman must decide in each case the manner in which a poll will be taken, but in all cases the chairman must ascertain the number of votes attaching to Shares held or represented by persons voting in favour of a resolution and the number of votes attaching to Shares held or represented by persons voting against the resolution. Any dispute about the admission or rejection of a vote must be determined by the chairman and the chairman's determination made in good faith will be final and conclusive.

Votes

- 13.2 Subject to the rights attaching to any class of Shares, on a show of hands every person present as a Member or as a representative, proxy or attorney of a Member will have 1 vote and (subject to clause 13.4) on a poll every Member present in person or by proxy, attorney or representative will have 1 vote for each Share held by that person.
- 13.3 A person entitled to cast more than 1 vote on a poll need not use all their votes or cast all the votes they use in the same way.
- 13.4 Subject to any restrictions affecting a class of Members, a Member holding any Shares on which no moneys are due and payable to the Company is entitled to receive notices and to attend any general meeting and to vote and be counted in a quorum even if moneys are then due and payable to the Company by that Member for other Shares held by that Member. On a poll, a Member will only be entitled to vote for Shares held by the Member on which no moneys are due and payable to the Company at the time the poll is taken.

Voting by joint holders

- 13.5 Where there are joint registered holders of any Share, any joint holder may vote at any meeting either personally or by proxy or attorney for the Shares as if the Member were solely entitled to those Shares, but if more than 1 joint holder is present at any meeting (whether personally, by proxy or by attorney) and tenders a vote, only the vote of the joint holder whose name appears first in the register counts. Several legal personal representatives of a deceased Member will for the purpose of this clause be deemed to be joint holders of the Shares registered in the name of that Member.

Attorney of Member

- 13.6 Any Member may appoint an attorney to act on its behalf at all meetings of the Company or all meetings of the Company during a specified period. Before the first meeting at which the attorney acts on the Member's behalf, the relevant power of attorney must be deposited at the Office or at any place specified in the notice convening that meeting. At the first meeting and at any subsequent meeting to which the power of attorney may relate, the attorney must hand to the chairman of the meeting a properly executed declaration of non-revocation of the power of attorney.

14 Proxies

Instrument appointing proxy

- 14.1 The instrument appointing a proxy must be in writing signed by the appointor or by the appointor's attorney properly authorised in writing, or, if the appointor is a body corporate, by its corporate representative or at least 2 of its officers.

Validity of appointment

- 14.2 The instrument appointing a proxy and the original power of attorney (if any) under which it is signed or a certified copy of the power of attorney must be received by the Company at least 15 minutes before the time for holding the meeting by delivery to the Company's registered office, by facsimile received at a fax number at the Company's registered office or otherwise by any other means permissible under section 250B of the Law.
- 14.3 An instrument appointing a proxy will only be valid for 12 Months from the date of its execution unless it states that it is valid for all meetings until revoked, except that any instrument may be used at any adjournment of the meeting for which it was originally intended.

Validity of vote given in accordance with proxy

- 14.4 Unless the Company has received written notice of the matter before the start or resumption of the Member's meeting at which a proxy or an attorney votes, a vote cast by the proxy or attorney will be valid even if, before the proxy or attorney voted, the Member:
- (a) dies;
 - (b) is mentally incapacitated;
 - (c) revokes the proxy's or attorney's appointment;
 - (d) revokes the authority under which the proxy was appointed by a third party; or
 - (e) transfers the Share for which the proxy was given.

Form of proxy

- 14.5 Every instrument of proxy must specify the Member's name and address, the Company's name, the proxy's name or the name of the office held by the proxy and the meetings at which the proxy may be used, and must otherwise comply with the provisions of section 250A of the Law.
- 14.6 The instrument of proxy may be worded so that a proxy is directed to vote either for or against each of the resolutions to be proposed. Any instrument of proxy deposited in accordance with this Constitution in which the name of the appointee is not filled will be deemed to be given in favour of the chairman of the meeting to which it relates. The instrument of proxy may specify the proportion or number of votes that the proxy may exercise.

- (a) the Company has a genuine reason to believe that a Member is not known at the address shown for that Member in the Members' Register;
 - (b) the Company has subsequently made an enquiry at that address as to the whereabouts of the Member; and
 - (c) the enquiry either elicits no response or a response indicating that the Member's present whereabouts are unknown,
- all future notices will be deemed to be given to the Member if the notice is exhibited in the Office for a period (not including weekends and public holidays) of not less than 48 hours and will be deemed to be duly served at the beginning of that period.
- (d) This clause will apply unless and until the Member informs the Company of a registered place of address or that the Member has resumed residence at the Member's address shown in the Members' Register or notifies the Company of a new address to which the Company may send the Member notices (which will be deemed to be the Member's registered address).

Notices binding on transferees

- 33.9 Every person who by operation of law, transfer or otherwise becomes entitled to any Share will be bound by every notice for the Share which, prior to the person's name and address being entered on the Members' Register, is given to the person from whom the person derives their title to the Share.

Notice to deceased or bankrupt Members

- 33.10 Any notice or document given to a Member will be deemed to have been properly given for any Shares held solely or jointly by the Member despite the Member's death or bankruptcy and whether or not the Company has notice of death or bankruptcy until some other person is registered in place of the Member as the holder or joint holder.

Signing of notices

- 33.11 The signature to any notice to be given by the Company may be written or printed.

34 Winding up

Distribution of assets

- 34.1 Subject to the rights attaching to any class or classes of Shares, if the Company is wound up all fully paid Shares will participate equally in any distribution of assets available for distribution among the Members, and any partly paid Shares will have a proportional right of participation with fully paid Shares according to the proportion of the issue price of the Shares which has been paid.

Fee or commission paid to liquidator to be approved in general meeting

- 34.2 No fee or commission will be paid by the Company to any Director or liquidator upon any sale or realisation of the Company's undertaking or assets or any part of them except with the approval of the Company in general meeting, that meeting to be convened by notice specifying the fee or commission proposed to be paid.

Distribution in specie

- 34.3 If the Company is wound up (whether voluntarily or otherwise), the liquidator may, with the sanction of a Special Resolution, divide among the contributories in specie or kind any part of the assets of the Company and may, subject to obtaining the same sanction, vest any part of the assets of the Company in trustees upon any trusts for the benefit of the contributories or any of them as the liquidator thinks fit. For the purposes of this clause, the liquidator may set values as he or she considers fair and reasonable on any property to be divided and determine how the division is to be carried out.

Distribution of assets other than in accordance with legal rights

- 34.4 If the liquidator considers it expedient, any division of assets under the preceding clause may be otherwise than complying with the legal rights of the contributories and in particular, any class may be given preferential or special rights or may be excluded altogether or in part from a division of assets. Where any division occurs which does not comply with the legal rights of the contributories, any contributory who would be prejudiced will have a right to dissent and ancillary rights under section 507 of the Law.

Distribution on partly paid Shares

- 34.5 In any division of assets, where a contributory is entitled to Shares with a liability to pay calls or otherwise, the contributory may, within 10 days after the passing of the Special Resolution for the division, by notice in writing direct the liquidator to sell his or her proportion and pay the net proceeds to him or her and the liquidator will, if practicable, act accordingly.
